

Cabbages and Kings

- An exhibition to accompany the launch of Cuillin Bantock's essays: Cabbages and Kings (40 pp).
- The publication consists of essays written for the exhibition of the work of contemporary visual artists working in the UK and USA.
- Work is illustrated in full colour.
- The exhibition will consist of approximately 35 works in a wide range of media involving a challenging reach of aesthetic.
- Artists involved in the exhibition are: Cuillin Bantock, Michael Blake, Tim Cousins, Germaine Dolan, Peter Grieve, Marilyn Hallam, John McLean, Mali Morris, Geoffrey Rigden, Paul Tonkin, David Webb.
- All work is for sale. Price range from £1,000 to £15,000

Exhibition runs: 9th February – 3rd March

Maddox Arts, 52 Brook's Mews, London, W1K 4ED

Gallery opening hours: Tue - Friday 11:00 – 19:00, Sat 12:00 – 18:00

Web: www.maddoxarts.com T: 020 7495 3101 e-mail: info@maddoxarts.com

Image: Peter Grieve – Dart Frog, 2012, Recycled metal, 11 x 28 x 23 cm

